Introduction

To All University of Central Florida Community Members,

The Golden Rule is a compilation of various policies and procedures from 10 different UCF departments and was specifically created to provide the answers to many of your questions regarding University rules and regulations. This publication attempts to define your rights and responsibilities and give you a better understanding of your role as a member of the UCF community.

UCF may change when it deems appropriate any announcements, information, policies, rules, regulations, or procedures set forth. The Golden Rule is published once a year and cannot always reflect new and modified information. When information is revised, the changes will be communicated through online resources or other means of communications, at which time the revisions will supersede previous information. The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (OSRR) within the Division of Student Development and Enrollment Services is delegated the responsibility for assembling and providing information regarding The Golden Rule. If The Golden Rule leaves any of your questions unanswered, I hope you will contact the OSRR for clarification.

UCF values diversity in the campus community. Accordingly, discrimination on the basis of race, sex, national origin, religion, age, disability, marital status, or veteran's status is prohibited by federal and/or state law. It is our policy to treat all people with dignity and respect, without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, veteran status, or political opinions and affiliations.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Student Rights

Upon enrollment, students are entitled to the following freedoms and rights, provided the exercise thereof is accomplished in accordance with University procedures and does not result in disruption or disturbance as elsewhere described in the regulations.

- a. Participation in Student Government Association and its elective process.
- b. Membership in student organizations.
- c. Freedom of expression: The basic freedoms of students to hear, write, distribute and act upon a variety of thoughts and beliefs are guaranteed. Freedom of expression carries with it the responsibility for seeing that the essential order of the University is preserved.
- d. Freedom to hold public forums: The University desires to create a spirit of free inquiry and to promote the timely discussion of a wide variety of issues, provided the views expressed are stated openly and are subject to critical evaluation. Restraints on free inquiry are held to a minimum and are consistent with preserving an organized society in which peaceful, democratic means for change are available. Guest lecturers or off-campus speakers sponsored by student groups may appear on the UCF campus following arrangements with the designated University authority for such appearances.
- e. Freedom to hear, write, distribute, and act upon a variety of thoughts and beliefs. This freedom is subject to the following regulations:
  1. Written materials identified by authorship and sponsorship may be sold or distributed on campus within the guidelines of propriety and responsible journalism as established and supervised by the University Board of Publications, which is appointed by the President or designee. The distribution of such material, as is arranged by the Director of the Office of Student Involvement, is permissible for student organizations provided steps have been taken to preserve the orderliness of the campus.
  2. Non-University or off-campus printed materials shall not be distributed or circulated by students or student organizations without first being stamped by the office of the Director of the Office of Student Involvement.
  3. The distribution of materials or circulation of petitions to captive audiences such as those in classrooms, at registration, in study areas, or in residential units is not allowed without prior permission. Such permission may be requested from the appropriate University official.
- f. Peaceful assembly: Student gatherings must neither disrupt or interfere with the orderly educational operation of the institution, nor violate state or local laws, or University regulations.
- g. Fair and impartial hearing: These matters shall include, but not be limited to:
  1. Disciplinary proceedings involving alleged violation of academic and nonacademic regulations.
  2. Refunds and charges: The status of a student charged with a violation of University regulations shall not be affected pending final disposition of the charges except in the case of administrative action. For specific procedures and rights of students during the student conduct process, see later section entitled "Student Conduct Review Process."
- h. Confidentiality of student records: Each University office and agency which generates, collects, and disseminates information on students must follow the guidelines for confidentiality of those records in their possession. For further information see "Student Record Guidelines."

- i. Provisions for victims/survivors of acts of violence. To ensure fairness to victims/survivors of acts of violence throughout the disciplinary process, the University has established the following policy on victims/survivors:
  1. A victim or a survivor may have a person of his/her choice accompany him/her throughout the Student Conduct Review Process. This person will act as a support person or advisor, but will not represent the victim or survivor.
  2. A victim or survivor may submit a list of questions related to the alleged incident, prior to the hearing, that he/she feels the charged student should be asked during the hearing process.
  3. A victim or survivor may not have his/her irrelevant past conduct, including sexual history, discussed during the hearing. The issue of relevancy shall be determined by the Student Hearing Panel or the hearing officer.
  4. A victim or a survivor may make a “victim or survivor impact statement” and suggest an appropriate sanction (to include appropriate compensations) if the charged student is found to have been in violation of the Rules of Conduct.
  5. A victim or survivor may know the outcome of the Student Conduct Review Process after making a commitment to protect the confidentiality for all persons involved as outlined in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Regulations, 34 CFR 99(a)(13). However, where the Student Conduct Review Process is invoked for a sex offense, both the victim/survivor and the accused must be informed of the final outcome of the Student Conduct Review Process without a commitment to protect the confidentiality of the information, pursuant to the Clery Act Regulations, 34 CFR 668.46(b)(11). The “final outcome” means only the final determination with respect to the alleged sex offense and any sanction that is imposed against the accused. If the alleged victim of such crime or offense is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of paragraph 5.

2. Student Responsibilities

- a. The most basic responsibility of a student is to study and move forward in intellectual development, while taking advantage of the many opportunities provided in this University environment for total personal growth, development, and maturation.
- b. Students and organizations are responsible for the observation of all University policies and regulations.
- c. Rights and freedoms in any environment are protected through exercised responsibilities and maintained through an established system for justice. The ideal balance of control for liberties is strongly weighted toward understanding and observing regulations as acts of individual responsibility, not always because of agreement, but because compliance also serves the best interests of all and helps in the completion of stated individual and University objectives.
- d. The University has compiled student-governing information in this handbook and has distributed it to help provide direction and awareness for the academic community. It is each student’s responsibility to become aware of and learn its regulatory content and procedures for dealing with problems which may arise in the course of educational progress.
- e. When University regulations are judged to no longer serve the best interests of all, the consideration for change should be introduced through appropriate channels.
- f. Within the University, emphasis is placed on the development of each individual’s recognition and acceptance of personal and social responsibilities.
- g. High ethical and moral standards of conduct are a part of the University’s mission and its contribution to the well-being of society.

3. University Crisis Committee

- a. The Crisis Committee is composed of the following persons and/or their designee(s): Health Services Director, Counseling Center Director, Associate Director of Safety and Security for University Police, Director of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Office of Student Conduct Representative, Associate Dean for Academic Services, and the Director of Housing and Residence Life.
- b. The University may refer students who are viewed to be engaging in behavior that poses risk to themselves or others to the Crisis Committee for possible action. Such behaviors include, but are not limited to: suicidal behavior, self-injury, threats to harm others, disruptive behavior, disordered eating, and endangerment to the community.
- c. Various campus units may enlist the services of the committee. These include Housing and Residence Life, Health Services, Disability Services, Counseling, Recreation and Wellness Services, Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life, Athletics, Alcohol and Other Drug Programming Office, University Police, and the Office of Student Conduct. In the event that a student’s behavior raises concern about risk of danger to self or others, the involved unit will contact the Director of the OSRR. The Director of the OSRR will then contact Crisis Committee members to convene a meeting in order to review the case and decide on the best course of action.
- d. The role of the Health Services Director and the Counseling Center Director on the Crisis Committee will be consultative in nature. When possible, the Health Services Director and the Counseling Center Director will not confer on a case for which they are (or have been) serving in a direct provider relationship with the involved student. When the involved student has been a client at the UCF Counseling Center, the Counseling Center Director will maintain the confidentiality of the student’s clinical information and will make recommendations for action based solely upon the information provided in the Crisis Committee meeting.

4. Mandated Assessment Policy

- a. In an effort to minimize risk of students with potentially unstable mental health conditions and to help protect the welfare of the UCF campus community, UCF has a procedure for reviewing incidents which have resulted in a student's involuntary examination of imminent danger to self or others via the Baker Act (Florida Statute 394.463, Florida Mental Health Act) or Marchman Act (Florida Statute Chapter 397). Whenever the Police (UCF, Orange County, etc.) provide transportation of a UCF student to the hospital for involuntary examination, the police will file a report with the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities (OSRR). Once the report is received, the Director of the OSRR may notify and consult with a designated representative of the UCF Counseling Center or Student Health Service and/or the UCF crisis committee to review the severity of the student's behavior related to the involuntary examination for potential of continued risk to the campus community. A determination will be made whether a mandated interview, which includes education about resources and steps needed to help the students in their specific situations is adequate or whether some other more stringent, protective action is appropriate to protect both the welfare of the student and the community. In either case, the Director of the OSRR will contact the student in a timely manner (upon release from the hospital and return to UCF) and require an initial meeting between an OSRR representative and the student to inform the student of their rights and responsibilities regarding the incident involving imminent risk to self or others.
- b. In cases where a mandated assessment, which includes education about resources and steps needed to help the students in their specific situations is deemed adequate, the Director of the OSRR will require such students to complete an interview with a licensed mental health professional. The required interview must occur within two weeks following release from the hospital. Examples of a licensed mental health professional include a UCF Health Service psychiatrist, a UCF Counseling Center counselor, or a community-based counselor or psychiatrist of the student's choice. The Director of the OSRR will require proof of participation for the required interview with the licensed mental health professional. Failure to comply may result in the initiation of the UCF Involuntary Withdrawal Procedure (see paragraph 5).
- c. In cases where more protective action is needed based on more severe behavior/conduct (e.g., behaviors/actions towards killing self, behavior endangering others, threats to harm others, behavior disruptive to community), the Director of the OSRR may initiate:
  1. A summary suspension followed by a student conduct review and due process;
  2. Involuntary withdrawal procedure; or
  3. Required interview with a mental health professional and counseling education.

5. Involuntary Withdrawal Procedure

- a. A student who poses a serious danger of imminent or serious physical harm to himself/herself or others on property at the University will be involuntarily withdrawn from the University by the Director of the OSRR upon appropriate notification and consultation from the University Crisis Committee.
- b. This notification is received in the form of an incident report to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, or a psychiatric evaluation filed with the UCF Police Department. The student will be withdrawn if the Director of the OSRR concludes, on the basis of preponderance of evidence, that the student engages or threatens to engage in behavior that:
  1. Poses a significant danger of causing harm to the student or to others, or
  2. Substantially impedes the lawful activities of other members of the campus community.
- c. The Director of the OSRR reserves the right to impose an immediate and interim withdrawal (the equivalent of a summary suspension) prior to the review of all information if the Director of the OSRR concludes that the student poses a threat to the welfare of any individual, the student body, or any part of the University or its community. In such cases, there will be a scheduling of a hearing within three (3) calendar days to determine the status of interim withdrawal. At this hearing, the student shall be offered an opportunity to provide documentation from an appropriate health care provider of their choice who has conducted a proper assessment.
- d. The Director of the OSRR will call a meeting of the University Crisis Committee at the earliest possible date. The student may be present at this meeting and may present information in support of his/her case. Following the student's presentation, the committee shall convene in executive session. At the conclusion of this proceeding, the committee shall make a recommendation to the Director of the OSRR whether to withdraw the student, reinstate the student, or reinstate the student with conditions.
- e. The Director of the OSRR will make a final decision regarding the student's enrollment status and notify the student in writing within 24 hours of the Crisis Committee's recommendation.
- f. A student subject to involuntary withdrawal is entitled to the following:
  1. Notice of intent to remove the student pursuant to this policy stating the reasons for the action.
  2. The opportunity to examine the psychiatric or other evaluations provided to the committee and to discuss them.
  3. The opportunity to present relevant information for consideration of his/her case personally, or by a health professional working with that student, if the student is not capable of self-representation.
  4. The opportunity to have an advisor of the student's own choice accompany the student.
  5. The right to appeal.
- g. In the event a student disagrees with the decision of the Director of the OSRR, the student may appeal the finding. The appeal must be made in writing to the Vice President for Student Development and Enrollment Services. Such appeal must be made within three (3) business days after the date the student was notified of the Director of the OSRR's decision. The Vice President may, within three (3) business days, approve, modify, or reject the original decision. The Vice President's decision will be considered final agency action.

- h. Upon being withdrawn, the student may no longer attend classes, may not be an active member of a registered student organization, may no longer use University facilities, must vacate University-owned or affiliated housing, and may be entitled to whatever refunds of tuition, fees, and room and board charges as would be appropriate given the timing of the withdrawal.
- i. Students who are involuntarily withdrawn from the University shall have a hold placed on their records, which will prevent them from being re-admitted or re-enrolled in the institution except as stated in this paragraph. A student may request re-admission or re-enrollment at the University and provide the Director of the OSRR with documentation from an appropriate health care provider of their choice who has conducted a proper assessment of the student and concluded that the student does not pose a serious threat of harm to himself/herself or others. In cases where the Director has imposed other conditions for re-admission, it is the responsibility of the student to provide documentation of compliance with such conditions.
- j. A student who is not involuntarily withdrawn may be subject to conditions to continue enrollment at the University. In such cases, the student will be provided with a written summary of conditions and must meet all conditions in order to maintain student status. A student who fails to meet such conditions will be subject to involuntary withdrawal by the Director of the OSSR, or will be subject to charges through the University's Student Conduct Review Process for failure to comply.
- k. The current medical withdrawal process should not be used to handle withdrawals related to mental health issues where an imminent threat is evident or a violation of The Golden Rule has allegedly occurred. However, a student could choose to pursue a medical withdrawal within six (6) months of the end of the semester. As a general principle, the regular Student Conduct Review Process and its policies and practices are preferred in serious instances of misconduct, without regard to whether there might be mental health issues present. The procedures and specifications given in this regulation are to be employed in those extraordinary situations in which, in the judgment of the appropriate administrative officers, the regular Student Conduct Review Process is not applicable or cannot be applied.

  6. A person shall not knowingly take advantage of another person who is under 18 years of age, mentally defective, under the influence of prescribed medication, alcohol or other chemical drugs, or who is not conscious or awake, and thus is not able to give consent as defined above. Further, a person shall not physically or verbally coerce another person to engage in any form of sexual conduct to the end that consent as defined above is not given.
  7. Any attempted acts of sexual misconduct are also violations of this policy.

UCF-5.009*STUDENT CONDUCT REVIEW PROCESS; SANCTIONS*1. Violation Reports

- a. Alleged violations of the UCF Rules of Conduct shall be reported in writing to the Director of the OSRR or designee. Violation reports can be submitted for information purposes only, for information purposes with the requirement that the student attend an ethics seminar, or to initiate the student conduct review process. Upon receiving an alleged violation of misconduct, the Director of the OSRR or designee may review relevant information and consult with relevant parties regarding the incident in question. In unusual cases which dictate a decision for the welfare of any individual, the student body, or any part of the University or its community, the Director of the OSRR or designee, upon notifying the VP of SDES, may take immediate action to resolve the situation by placing the student on interim suspension. Such action is subject to review at a hearing within three (3) business days by the VP of SDES or designee to determine the status of the interim suspension. The outcome of an interim suspension hearing shall remain in effect until the final disposition of formal charges resulting from the circumstances of the case, unless the VP of SDES or designee shall decide otherwise.
- b. The Director of the OSRR will refer all information warranting disciplinary action to the Office of Student Conduct. The Office of Student Conduct will send written notification to the charged student indicating the nature of the activity in question and what University rules were allegedly violated.
- c. Upon receipt of an incident report the Office of Student Conduct has six (6) months to charge a student with a violation of the Rules of Conduct. The Office of Student Conduct may exercise discretion when applying the time provision to account for circumstances that warrant a waiver of the six-month time limit from the date of discovery.
- d. Students charged with alleged violations of the Rules of Conduct will receive notice to attend a required preliminary conference with the Office of Student Conduct to discuss the charges. If the student fails to attend that conference, a hold may be placed on the student's record, preventing them from registering for future classes until the matter is resolved. Students who leave the University or withdraw from a class before a disciplinary matter is resolved may be prohibited from future enrollment until such time as the matter is resolved. The student will receive information regarding the Student Conduct Review Process, including the student's rights during the process, an opportunity to inspect and/or review the information known at the time charges are prepared, and notice on how to contact the Student Government Association Judicial Advisor. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Office of Student Conduct recommends an option for resolution of the disciplinary charge. These options are dismissal, mediation, informal hearing, or formal hearing.

2. Options for Resolution of Disciplinary Charges

- a. Case Dismissal: The Director of the OSRR or designee may dismiss a case if it is found to not have sufficient facts or information to substantiate the claim of misconduct, the accused person is not a student, or the action claimed as misconduct is not a violation of the Rules of Conduct.
- b. Mediation: Depending on the nature and severity of the alleged violation, the Office of Student Conduct may recommend formal mediation through the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities as an alternative to disciplinary action. The involved parties must each agree to mediation. Mediation is confidential. In mediation, the parties voluntarily meet with an impartial mediator to communicate their concerns and needs to each other and to reach their own agreement on the resolution of the case. The participants in mediation are responsible for keeping their agreement or re-negotiating it, if necessary. In the event that the participants do not agree to mediate or mediate but do not reach a full and final resolution, the case will be referred back for disciplinary action through an informal or a formal hearing. Breach of a mediated agreement may result in a follow-up mediation session or the matter may be referred back through the conduct process at the discretion of the Office of Student Conduct.
- c. Informal Hearing: At the discretion of the Office of Student Conduct, violations found not to warrant a formal hearing may be referred to an informal hearing. At the informal hearing the charged student has the opportunity to meet with an Office of Student Conduct staff member and accept responsibility for the charges of violation of the Rules of Conduct. At the informal level the matter will be settled by the following outcomes: punitive sanction (disciplinary warning or disciplinary probation) as well as educational sanctions (papers, seminars, community service, etc.). If the matter is not resolved informally, the case will be resolved through a formal hearing.
- d. Formal Hearing: If an alleged violation of the Rules of Conduct is not dismissed or otherwise resolved, then the Office of Student Conduct shall present in writing formal charges to the student. The charged student may request either a panel or administrative hearing. The charged student's hearing shall be open only to the charged student, his/her advisor, the hearing body, witnesses (when called upon), and a representative from the Office of Student Conduct. In cases of alleged Harmful Behavior or Sexual Misconduct (see Regulation UCF-5.008, Rules of Conduct), the student is required to have a panel hearing.

Formal notification shall include:

1. The student's name and address.
2. Date, time and location of the formal hearing.
3. The rule(s) of conduct allegedly violated as known at the time formal charges are prepared.
4. Names of potential witnesses known at the time formal charges are prepared.
5. A description of any physical or written documentation known at the time charges are prepared.

3. Formal Hearings

There are two types of formal hearings—panel hearings and administrative hearings.

a. Panel Hearings

1. A panel to consider an individual case shall be randomly selected by the Office of Student Conduct from the Student Conduct Board and shall consist of two (2) faculty and administrative staff members combined, and two (2) student members. One panel member shall be selected by the Office of Student Conduct to chair the hearing and report the finding(s) and recommended sanctions, if any, to the Director of the OSRR or designee.

2. At hearings conducted by a panel, an Office of Student Conduct staff member shall act as an advisor to the panel. The Director of the OSRR shall receive the panel's finding(s) as to "in violation" or "not in violation" of the Rules of Conduct, and consider any sanctions recommended by the panel.
  3. The Director of the OSRR or designee may accept the finding(s) of "in violation" or "not in violation" or remand the case for rehearing. If the Director of the OSRR or designee accepts the finding(s) of "in violation," they may approve, mitigate or increase the sanctions recommended by the panel, listed in the Disciplinary Sanctions section of the Student Conduct Review Process.
  4. Any decision by the Director of the OSRR or designee to alter sanctions or return a case shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit written statement that explains the basis for that decision.
- b. Administrative Hearings
1. Administrative hearings shall be conducted by a faculty or staff member randomly selected by the Office of Student Conduct from the Student Conduct Board. The charged student shall be informed of the hearing officer assigned to his/her case and shall have the opportunity to challenge the impartiality of the individual within three (3) business days of notification. The student shall state in writing the basis for such challenge. A hearing officer so challenged will be excused; however, indiscriminate challenges shall not be permitted. In the event that a student has opted not to challenge the impartiality of a hearing officer prior to the allotted three (3) business days, the assigned hearing officer shall remain as scheduled. Administrative hearings are not an option in cases of alleged Harmful Behavior or Sexual Misconduct (see Regulation UCF-5.008, Rules of Conduct).
  2. At hearings conducted by an administrative hearing officer, an Office of Student Conduct staff member shall act as an advisor to the administrative hearing officer. The Director of the OSRR or designee shall receive the administrative hearing officer's finding(s) as to "in violation" or "not in violation" of the Rules of Conduct, and consider any sanctions recommended by the administrative hearing officer.
  3. The Director of the OSRR or designee may accept the finding(s) of "in violation" or "not in violation" or remand the case for rehearing. If the Director of the OSRR or designee accepts the finding(s) of "in violation," they may approve, mitigate or increase the sanctions recommended by the administrative hearing officer, listed in the Disciplinary Sanctions section of the Student Conduct Review Process.
  4. Any decision by the Director of the OSRR or designee to alter sanctions or return a case shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit written statement that explains the basis for that decision.
- c. Conduct of Formal Hearings
- The following is furnished as a guide to the sequence of events in a formal hearing:
1. Reading of charges.
  2. Student response of "in violation" or "not in violation."
  3. Presentation of information in support of the charges.
  4. Opening statement by the charged student.
  5. Questioning of the charged student by the hearing body.
  6. Presentation and questioning of witnesses in support of the charges.
  7. Presentation and questioning of witnesses by the charged student.
  8. Final questions of the charged student by the hearing body.
  9. Closing remarks by the charged student.
  10. Deliberation (in confidential executive session).
  11. Announcement of the finding(s) and recommended sanctions, if any.

d. Case Record for Formal Hearing

The case record shall consist of the following items:

1. A copy of the formal charges in writing.
2. A recording of the formal hearing.
3. All staff memoranda submitted.
4. All items of physical or written documentation submitted, provided such items are not returned to a rightful owner. In that case, photographs or other facsimiles shall be made before return.
5. The finding(s) and recommended sanction(s) by the hearing panel or administrator, if any.
6. The Director of the OSRR's decision.

4. Student Rights in the Student Conduct Review Process

- a. The following rights shall be explained to each charged student prior to the commencement of any formal disciplinary hearing:
1. The charged student shall be afforded reasonable written notice at least five (5) business days prior to the formal hearing, unless waived in writing. Written notice sent to the charged student's electronic and/or physical address listed in the Registrar's records shall constitute full and adequate notice.

Written notice shall include:

    - i. The student's name and address.
    - ii. Date, time and location and nature of the proceeding of the formal hearing.
    - iii. The rule(s) of conduct allegedly violated as known at the time formal charges are prepared.
    - iv. Names of potential witnesses known at the time formal charges are prepared.
    - v. A description of any written or physical documentation known at the time charges are prepared.
  2. The student may have, at his or her own expense and initiative, an advisor present at the hearing. It is the student's responsibility to make appropriate arrangements for the advisor to attend the hearing, and the hearing shall not be delayed due to scheduling conflicts of the chosen advisor. The advisor may be present to advise the student but shall not speak for or present the case for the student or otherwise participate directly in the proceeding. The Office of Student Conduct shall maintain a list of impartial advisors and resources available to the student.
  3. All hearings shall be conducted on the basis that the charged student is not in violation until the preponderance of evidence proves otherwise. The burden of proof in a student conduct hearing is not on the student charged with a violation of the Rules of Conduct.

4. The student may inspect any information presented in support of the charges. Information may be presented in support of the student.
5. The University cannot compel any person to attend a student disciplinary hearing. However, all parties to the student conduct hearing may arrange for witnesses to voluntarily present relevant information during the proceeding. Pertinent information may be accepted as information for consideration by the person or body conducting the hearing. The student may hear and question adverse witnesses who testify at the hearing.
6. The student shall not be forced to present self-incriminating information; however, the University is not required to postpone disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of any civil or criminal case.
7. The finding of “in violation” or “not in violation” on the charges shall be based solely on the information presented at the hearing.
8. Should the finding of the hearing body be in violation, prior conduct history will then be reviewed and may affect sanctioning.
9. The results of any formal hearing shall be made available to the student within two (2) business days following the hearing (deadline can be extended by mutual agreement of the charged student and the Director of the OSRR or designee).
10. The student’s enrollment status shall remain unchanged pending the University’s final decision in the matter, except in cases where the VP of SDES or designee determines that the safety, health, or general welfare of the student, any individual, or any part of the University may be involved.

5. Sanctions

- a. Disciplinary Warning: An official warning that the student’s behavior is in violation of the UCF Rules of Conduct, and that if the student is subsequently found in violation of a rule while on disciplinary warning; subsequent action may be more severe.
- b. Disciplinary Probation: Disciplinary probation status shall be for a specific length of time. Restrictive conditions may be imposed and vary according to the severity of the offense. Restrictive conditions may include, but may not be limited to, the following: loss of good standing, which may become a matter of record; ineligibility to receive any University award, scholarship, loan, honorary recognition, or initiation into any local or national organizations; and denial of the privilege to occupy a position of leadership or responsibility in any University student organization, publication, or activity, or ability to represent the University in an official capacity or position. Under disciplinary probation, the student may continue to attend classes and is given a chance to show capability and willingness to live in accordance with University rules. However, if the student is subsequently found in violation of a rule while on disciplinary probation, the University may suspend or expel the student from the University. While on disciplinary probation, a hold will be placed on a student’s record for record keeping purposes.
- c. Disciplinary Suspension: A student involved in an offense warranting consideration of action more serious than disciplinary probation or one involved in repeated misconduct may face suspension. During the period of suspension, a student may not attend classes, participate in University-related activities, whether they occur on or off campus. A student under disciplinary suspension may not otherwise be present on University premises unless authorized in writing in advance under conditions approved by the Director of the OSRR. In determining if and to what extent suspended students shall be authorized to be on University premises, the Director of the OSRR or designee shall consider whether the suspension creates an undue hardship on the suspended student in regard to considerations that include, but are not limited to, the medical needs of the student. An overlay will be placed on a student’s record during the period of suspension. Further, while on disciplinary suspension, a hold will be placed on a student’s record for record keeping purposes. All assigned educational sanctions must be completed prior to the conclusion of disciplinary suspension; otherwise the disciplinary suspension will remain in effect.
- d. Disciplinary Expulsion: Expulsion is a sanction which removes the student from his/her academic program and permanently separates a student from UCF without opportunity to graduate or re-enroll at the University in the future. An overlay will be permanently placed on the student’s record. Further, a hold will be permanently placed on a student’s record for record-keeping purposes.
- e. Educational Sanctions: In conjunction with an administrative sanction, a student found to have been in violation of any of the Rules of Conduct will be assigned educational sanctions such as, but not limited to, reflective/research papers, classes/seminars, community service, interviews, etc. If a student has any outstanding educational sanctions at the conclusion of disciplinary probation or suspension, a student’s disciplinary probation or suspension status and hold will remain in effect pending the completion of the educational sanctions.

UCF-5.010*STUDENT CONDUCT APPEALS*1. Appeals Within the Student Conduct Review Process

- a. Students found in violation as a result of a hearing may appeal the finding(s) and sanction(s) imposed. The appeal must be made in writing to the appellate officer (VP of SDES or designee) within seven (7) business days after the date the student was notified of the decision by the Director of the OSRR.
- b. Students may appeal the finding and sanction(s) imposed on the basis of one or more of the following:
  1. Irregularities in fairness and stated procedures of the hearing that could have affected the outcome of the hearing.
  2. Discovery of new and significant information that could have affected the outcome of the hearing and that was not known or could not reasonably have been discovered and/or presented at the time of the initial hearing.
  3. The sanction(s) are extraordinarily disproportionate to the violation(s).
- c. On the appeal form, the student must state the reason(s) for appeal, the supporting facts, and the recommended solution. This is not a re-hearing of the conduct case. An appeal cannot be filed simply because a student is dissatisfied with the decision. Failure to describe the nature of the information in full detail in the appeal letter will result in the denial of an appeal.
- d. The appellate officer shall first determine if sufficient grounds for appeal exist and then, if so, may either deny the appeal, thus sustaining the initial decision and sanction(s), or do one of the following:
  1. If the student alleges that the sanction was inappropriate and the appellate officer finds the sanction to be inappropriate, the appellate officer may reduce the sanction.
  2. If the student alleges that there was a defect in procedure or new information is presented and the appellate officer finds that there was a defect in the procedure or new information was presented which was sufficiently substantial to have affected the outcome, the appellate officer will order a new hearing.
- e. The student shall receive a written decision to the appeal. There is no definitive timeline for receiving an appeal response. It depends on many factors including the complexity of the case and the information mentioned in the appeal, as well as the appellate officer's appeal load at that particular time. Decisions of the VP of SDES or designee reflect final agency action.
- f. OSC cannot place an overlay on the student's record until the appeal decision is completed or if the student chooses not to appeal. At such time, if appropriate, a hold and/or overlay is placed on the student's record. If the appellate officer upholds the original findings, the effective date of any disciplinary sanction(s) imposed will revert back to the date of the Director of the OSRR's final decision letter.

2. Disciplinary Sanction Review Request (Probation/Suspension)

- a. Upon completion of one semester of disciplinary probation and one semester of disciplinary suspension (not applicable for one semester suspensions) and upon completion of all educational sanctions/requirements, a student has the opportunity to request a review of their disciplinary probation or suspension status.
- b. Requests must be submitted to the Director of the OSRR or designee via an online Disciplinary Sanction Review request form available at www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu. This request can only be submitted once a semester.
- c. This request is intended to provide a student with the opportunity to discuss in writing what they have done to proactively address their behavior while on disciplinary probation/suspension.
- d. In considering this request the student should provide information showing how they have been going above and beyond the basic requirements of their sanction(s). Students that simply fulfill the minimum requirements of their sanction(s) will not be subject for a disciplinary sanction review.
- e. A request for disciplinary sanction review should include, but is not limited to, information such as the following:
  1. Positive change in ethical decision making and personal accountability
  2. Proof of counseling and/or assessment (if applicable)
  3. Involvement in educational programs and academic progress
  4. Community involvement/service
- f. Upon receipt of the request it will first be reviewed by the Director of the OSRR or designee to determine whether or not the student meets criteria for review. If the Director of the OSRR or designee agrees that the student's request meets any/all of the above mentioned criteria, the student will be contacted within fourteen (14) business days to schedule a "disciplinary sanction review meeting" with a committee appointed by the Director of the OSRR or designee, comprised of an equal number of faculty, staff and students.
- g. At this meeting, the student will have the opportunity to further discuss with the committee why their disciplinary probation and/or suspension status should be altered or terminated. No alterations shall be made to include new or increased sanctions.
- h. After the meeting, the committee will issue a recommendation to the Director of the OSRR or designee. The Director of the OSRR or designee will provide a decision to the student in writing within two (2) business days of receiving the recommendation.
- i. If the request is denied by the Director of the OSRR or designee the decision shall include a concise and explicit written statement that explains the basis for that decision.
- j. There is no appeal process for a Disciplinary Sanction Review

3. Sealing of Records

- a. A student's conduct record is eligible to be sealed if the incident(s) in question are minor and do not result in suspension or expulsion and where further violations would not likely result in suspension or expulsion from the university. Students may submit a request to have their records sealed during their last year at the university. If a student's record is sealed, any additional violation(s) committed after the record sealing shall not be sealed and a separate request must be made if the violation(s) are eligible to be sealed.
- b. A student conduct record may be sealed upon the successful submission and review of appropriate paperwork to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Requests should be submitted to the Director of the OSRR or designee via an online Sealing request form available at www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu.
- c. After the director of OSRR verifies that a records sealing request is in compliance with subsection (a), the record sealing request will be reviewed by the Sealing of Records Review Committee to determine if it meets the criteria for a sealing of records review.
- d. The Sealing of Records Review Committee will be appointed by the Director of OSRR, or a designee, and will be comprised of an equal number of staff/faculty and students
- e. The factors influencing the decision by the Sealing of Records Review Committee for sealing are the severity of the violation, effect of the violation on the University community, sanctions applied, completion of sanctions, and ethical development demonstrated by the student.
- f. After the meeting, the committee will issue a recommendation to the Director of OSRR or designee. The Director of the OSRR or designee will provide a decision to the student, in writing, fourteen (14) business days of receipt of the sealing request.
- g. If the recommendation is denied by the Director of OSRR or designee the decision shall include a concise and explicit written statement that explains the basis for their decision.
- h. There is no appeal process for a Sealing of Records Review.

PARENTAL NOTIFICATION POLICY

- a. In the fall of 2000, the Board of Regents of the State University System of Florida instructed each University to include provisions for parental notification of dependent students under the age of 21 if the student is found to be in violation of University policies regarding alcohol and other drugs. The purpose of the Parental Notification Policy at the University of Central Florida is to comply with the Board of Regents' instructions and to promote the health and well being of students. This policy will provide parents an opportunity to partner with their student and the University to address behaviors that could place students at risk of harming themselves or others. The University of Central Florida will notify parents or guardians of dependent students, defined in F.S. 228.093 under the age of 21, when the student is found responsible for violating University alcohol or other drug policies as found in the student handbook, The Golden Rule.
- b. Parents will be notified if:
  1. The student has been found for the second or more time(s) in violation of the University policy regarding the use, possession, sale, or distribution of alcoholic beverages.

  3. The student has been found in violation of the University policy that prohibits driving a vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages or a narcotic or other controlled substance not expressly permitted by law.
  4. The student has been found in violation of the University policy regarding belligerent and/or aggressive behavior while under the influence of alcoholic beverages or a narcotic or other controlled substance not expressly permitted by law.

  6. The student has required professional treatment in a medical facility for a condition associated with the use of alcoholic beverages or a narcotic or other controlled substance not expressly permitted by law.
  7. These guidelines do not preclude the University's contacting parents or guardians for other policy violations that may endanger the health and well being of a student or other individuals in the community.
- c. Parents or guardians will be notified in writing by the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities and, whenever possible, students will be informed in advance that their parents or guardians will be notified.

There is no minimum number of group members who must be involved in an incident before disciplinary action may be taken against the organization. In some instances, the conduct of a single member may provide sufficient grounds for action against the entire organization. Misconduct on the part of the organization may be addressed when:
  - 1. Members of the organization act together to violate University standards of conduct.
  - 2. One or more officers or members of an organization have knowledge of an incident, behavior, etc., by any individual at an organization-sponsored, financed, or otherwise supported activity and fails to take corrective or prohibitive action before such incident behavior, etc. occurs or fails to stop such incident, behavior, etc. while it is occurring.

6. Student Organizational Conduct Records

- a. Maintenance of Records. A student organizations conduct case record will be maintained in the Office of Student Conduct. The case record of a student organization found responsible for charge(s) against them, with sanctions less than suspension or revocation, will generally be maintained in the Office of Student Conduct for seven years from the calendar year of record, after which they are destroyed. The case record of a student organization that has been suspended or whose registration has been revoked will be permanently maintained by the Office of Student Conduct.
- b. Release of Records. The release of student organization disciplinary records will be governed by applicable federal and state laws regarding the privacy of educational records.

Incident reports can be submitted for information purposes only, for information purposes with the requirement that the student organization attend an academic integrity seminar, or to initiate the student conduct review process. Upon receiving an incident report, the Director of the OSRR or designee may review relevant information and consult with relevant parties regarding the incident in question. In unusual cases which dictate a decision for the health and safety of any individual, the student body, or any part of the University or its community, the Director of the OSRR or designee, upon notifying the VP of SDES, may take immediate action to resolve the situation by placing the student organization on interim suspension. Such action is subject to review at a hearing within 10 business days by the VP of SDES or designee to determine the status of the interim suspension. The outcome of an interim suspension hearing shall remain in effect until the final disposition of formal charges resulting from the circumstances of the case, unless the VP of SDES or designee shall decide otherwise.
- b. The Director of the OSRR will refer all information warranting disciplinary action to the Office of Student Conduct. The Office of Student Conduct will send written notification to the chief officer of the student organization at their UCF mailing address indicating the nature of the activity in question and what Organizational Rules of Conduct were allegedly violated. The chief officer of the student organization shall serve as the organization's representative in the organization conduct review process. The student organization may not designate an advisor as their representative in the conduct review process.
- c. Upon receipt of an incident report the Office of Student Conduct has six (6) months to charge a student organization with a violation of the Organizational Rules of Conduct. The Office of Student Conduct may exercise discretion when applying the time provision to account for circumstances that warrant a waiver of the six (6) month time limit from the date the violation report was filed.
- d. A student organization charged with alleged violations of the Organizational Rules of Conduct (see UCF-5.012) will receive notice to attend a mandatory preliminary conference with the Office of Student Conduct. If the student organization fails to attend the mandatory preliminary conference without providing a satisfactory reason for the absence, the student organization may be placed on immediate social probation until such time as the student organization completes the mandatory preliminary conference. During the mandatory preliminary conference the student organization will receive information regarding the Student Organization Conduct Review Process, including the student organization's rights during the process; an opportunity to inspect and/or review the information known at the time charges were prepared and how to contact the Student Government Association Judicial Advisor. At the conclusion of the mandatory preliminary conference, one of the following will occur: case dismissal, mediation, informal hearing, or formal hearing.
- e. Social probation includes but is not limited to the prohibition of the following: any on or off campus fundraisers, socials, intramural competitions, receptions, service projects, conferences, retreats, etc. The organization may also not be able to update its registration until such time that it appears before a hearing. Groups under social probation may gather at regularly scheduled business meetings.

2. Options for Resolution of Disciplinary Charges

- a. Case Dismissal: The Director of OSRR or designee may dismiss a case if it is found to not have sufficient facts or evidence to substantiate the claim of misconduct or the misconduct is not a violation of the organizational rules of conduct.
- b. Mediation: Depending on the nature and severity of the alleged violation, the Office of Student Conduct may recommend formal mediation through the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities as an alternative to disciplinary action. The involved parties must each agree to mediation. Mediation is a confidential process where the parties voluntarily meet with an impartial mediator to communicate their concerns and needs to each other and to reach their own agreement on the resolution of the case. The participants in mediation are responsible for keeping their agreement or renegotiating it, if necessary. In the event that the participants do not agree to mediate or mediate but do not reach a full and final resolution, the case will be referred back to the Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action through an informal or a formal hearing. Breach of a mediated agreement may result in a follow up mediation session or the matter may be referred back through the conduct process at the discretion of the Office of Student Conduct.
- c. Informal Hearing: At the discretion of the Office of Student Conduct, violations found not to warrant a formal hearing may be referred to an informal hearing. At the informal hearing the charged student organization has the opportunity to meet with an Office of Student Conduct staff member and accept responsibility for the charges of violation of the Organizational Rules of Conduct. At the informal level the matter will be settled by the following outcomes: punitive sanction (warning, probation, or restrictive probation) as well as educational sanctions (papers, seminars, community service, etc.). If the matter is not settled informally, the case will be resolved through a formal hearing.
- d. Formal Hearing: If an alleged violation of the Organizational Rules of Conduct is not dismissed or otherwise resolved, then the Office of Student Conduct shall present in writing formal charges to the student organization. The charged student organization may request either a panel or administrative hearing. In cases of alleged Harmful Behavior or Sexual Misconduct (see Organizational Rules of Conduct, UCF-5.012) the student organization is required to have a panel hearing. The charged student organization's hearing shall only be open to the charged student organization's chief officer, their advisor, the hearing body, witnesses (when called upon), a representative from the Office of Student Conduct, and a University staff member from an appropriate office (Office of Student Involvement, Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life, Recreation and Wellness Center, etc.).

3. Formal Hearings

There are two types of formal hearings - panel hearings and administrative hearings.

a. Panel Hearings

1. A panel to consider an organizational case shall be comprised of members from the Office of Student Conduct Student Conduct Board. The panel shall consist of two (2) faculty and administrative staff members combined and two (2) student members that have been trained by the Office of Student Conduct to hear organizational cases. One panel member shall be selected by the Office of Student Conduct to chair the hearing and report the finding(s) and recommended sanction(s), if any, to the Director of the OSRR or designee.
2. At hearings conducted by a panel, an Office of Student Conduct staff member shall act as an advisor to the panel. The Director of the OSRR shall receive the panel's finding(s) as to "in violation" or "not in violation" of the Organizational Rules of Conduct and consider any recommended sanctions by the panel.

3. The Director of the OSRR or designee may accept the finding(s) of "in violation" or "not in violation" or remand the case for rehearing. If the Director of the OSRR or designee accepts the finding of "in violation," they may approve, mitigate or increase the sanctions recommended by the panel.
4. Any decision by the Director of the OSRR or designee to alter sanctions or return a case shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit written statement that explains the basis for that decision.

b. Administrative Hearings

1. Administrative hearings shall be conducted by a faculty or staff member from the Student Conduct Board trained by the Office of Student Conduct to hear organizational cases. The charged student organization shall be informed of the hearing officer assigned to its case and shall have the opportunity to challenge the impartiality of the individual within three (3) business days of notification. The charged student organization shall state in writing the basis for such challenge. A hearing officer so challenged will be excused; however, indiscriminate challenges shall not be permitted. In the event that a charged student organization has opted not to challenge the impartiality of a hearing officer prior to the allotted three (3) business days, the assigned hearing officer shall remain as scheduled. Administrative hearings are not an option in cases of alleged Harmful Behavior or Sexual Misconduct (see Organizational Rules of Conduct, UCF 5.012).
2. At hearings conducted by an administrative hearing officer, an Office of Student Conduct staff member shall act as an advisor to the administrative hearing officer. The Director of the OSRR or designee shall receive the administrative hearing officer's finding(s) as to "in violation" or "not in violation" of the Organizational Rules of Conduct, and consider any sanctions recommended by the administrative hearing officer.

3. The Director of the OSRR or designee may accept the finding(s) of “in violation” or “not in violation” or remand the case for rehearing. If the Director of the OSRR or designee accepts the finding(s) of “in violation,” they may approve, mitigate or increase the sanctions recommended by the administrative hearing officer.
4. Any decision by the Director of the OSRR or designee to alter sanctions or return a case shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit written statement that explains the basis for that decision.

c. Conduct of Formal Hearings

The following is furnished as a guide to the events in a formal hearing:

1. Reading of charges.
2. Student organization response of “in violation” or “not in violation.”
3. Presentation of information in support of the charges.
4. Opening statement by the charged student organization.
5. Questioning of the charged student organization by the hearing body.
6. Presentation and questioning of witnesses in support of the charges.
7. Presentation and questioning of witnesses by the charged student organization.
8. Final questions of the charged student organization by the hearing body.
9. Closing remarks by the charged student organization.
10. Deliberation (in confidential executive session).
11. Announcement of the finding(s) and recommended sanction(s), if any.

d. Case Record for Formal Hearing

The case record shall consist of the following items:

1. A copy of the formal charges in writing.
2. A recording of the formal hearing.
3. All staff memoranda submitted.
4. All items of physical or written documentation submitted, provided such items are not returned to a rightful owner. In that case, photographs or other facsimiles shall be made before return.
5. The finding(s) and recommended sanction(s), if any, by the hearing panel or administrator.
6. The Director of the OSRR’s decision.

4. Student Organization Rights During the Formal Conduct Review Process

- a. The following rights shall be explained to the charged student organization before the commencement of a formal disciplinary hearing:
  1. The charged student organization shall be afforded written notice, at least five (5) business days prior to a formal hearing, unless waived in writing. Written notice sent to the chief student officer of the charged student organization’s electronic and/or physical address shall constitute full and adequate notice. Written notice shall include:
    - i. The name of the organization, the chief student officer’s name and organization’s address, if applicable.
    - ii. Date, time and location of the formal hearing.
    - iii. Alleged Organizational Rule of Conduct Violation(s) known at the time formal charges are prepared.
    - iv. Names of potential witnesses known at the time that formal charges are prepared.
    - v. A description of any physical or written documentation known at the time charges are prepared.

Provided that the required notice stated above has been given to the student organization along with its representative(s) but a representative failed to attend a scheduled formal hearing without providing a satisfactory reason for the absence, the organization may be placed on immediate social probation until such time as the organization completes the formal hearing and any further steps in the conduct process. The organization will also not be able to update its registration while on social probation.
  2. The student organization may have, at their own expense and initiative, an advisor present at the hearing. It is the student organization’s responsibility to make appropriate arrangements for the advisor to attend the hearing, and the hearing shall not be delayed due to scheduling conflicts of the chosen advisor. The advisor may be present to advise the student organization but shall not speak for or present the case for the student organization or otherwise participate directly in the proceeding. A student organization may consult with their advisor at any time during the hearing. This consultation must take place in a manner that does not disrupt the proceedings. A student organization’s advisor must not be connected to the actual conduct case or a related case. In addition, an advisor may not serve as a witness. If the advisor does not adhere to their defined role in the student conduct review process, they may be removed from the hearing. The Office of Student Conduct shall maintain a list of impartial advisors and resources available to the student organization.
  3. All hearings shall be conducted on the basis that the charged student organization is not in violation until the preponderance of evidence proves otherwise. At a student conduct organizational hearing, the technical rules of evidence applicable to civil and criminal cases shall not apply. The burden of proof in a student conduct hearing is not on the student organization charged with a violation of the Organizational Rules of Conduct.
  4. The student organization’s chief officer may inspect any information presented in support of the charges. Information may be presented in support of the charged student organization.

5. The University cannot compel any person to attend a student organizational hearing. However, all parties to a student organizational conduct hearing may arrange for witnesses to voluntarily present relevant information during the proceeding. Pertinent information may be accepted as information for consideration by the person or body conducting the student organizational formal hearing. The student organization may hear and question adverse witnesses who testify at the student organizational formal hearing.
6. The student organization shall not be forced to present information that incriminates its individual members; however, the University is not required to postpone disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of any civil or criminal prosecution.
7. The finding(s) of “in violation” or “not in violation” on the charges shall be based solely on the information presented at the student organizational formal hearing.
8. Should the finding(s) of the hearing body be in violation, prior conduct history that has occurred within three academic years of the incident will then be reviewed and may affect sanctioning.
9. The final decision shall be furnished in writing to the student organization within two (2) business days following the hearing (the deadline can be extended by mutual agreement of the charged student organization and the Director of the OSRR or designee).
10. The student organization’s registration status shall remain unchanged pending the University’s final decision in the matter except in cases where the VP of SDES or designee determines that the safety, health, or general welfare of any individual, or any part of the University may be involved.

5. Sanctions for Student Organizations

- a. Disciplinary Warning: An official warning that the organization’s behavior is in violation of the Organizational Rules of Conduct and that if the organization is subsequently found in violation of a rule, subsequent action may be more severe.
- b. Disciplinary Probation: A period of time during which any further violation of the Organizational Rules of Conduct puts the student organization’s status with the University in jeopardy. Restrictive conditions may also be imposed as part of disciplinary probation and will vary according to the severity of the offense. Restrictive conditions may include barring or limiting some or all of the organization’s activities and/or privileges (including, but not limited to: social activities; intramural competition; organizational competition; Homecoming; eligibility to receive any University award or honorary recognition; privilege to occupy a position of leadership or responsibility in any University student organization governing body, publication, or activity; or ability to represent the University in an official capacity or position). If a student organization is found “in violation” for another violation of the Organizational Rules of Conduct while on disciplinary probation, more severe sanctions may be imposed.
- c. Suspension: While on suspension the student organization loses its University recognition and/or registration for a temporary period of time. While an organization is suspended, it may not use University resources or participate as an organization in any University activities or events.
- d. Revocation of UCF Registration: Permanent severance of the organization’s relationship with UCF.
- e. Recommendation for Charter Revocation: An official request to a national office that the local chapter’s charter be revoked.

- f. Educational Sanctions: In conjunction with any sanction listed above, a student organization found to have been in violation of any of the Organizational Rules of Conduct will be assigned educational sanctions such as, but not limited to: reflective/research papers, classes/seminars, community service, restitution, interviews, etc. If a student organization has any outstanding educational sanctions at the conclusion of disciplinary probation or suspension, the disciplinary probation or suspension will remain in effect pending completion of the educational sanctions.

6. Appeal Within the Student Organization Review Process

- a. A student organization found in violation as a result of a hearing may appeal the finding(s) and sanction(s) imposed. The appeal must be made in writing to the Appellate Officer (VP of SDES or designee) within seven (7) business days after the date the student organization was notified of the decision by the Director of the OSRR.
- b. Student organizations may appeal the finding(s) and sanction(s) imposed on the basis of one or more of the following:
  1. Irregularities in fairness and stated procedures of the hearing that substantially affected the outcome of the hearing.
  2. Discovery of new and significant information that would be likely to change the outcome of the hearing and that was not known or could not reasonably have been discovered and/or presented at the time of the initial hearing.
  3. The sanction(s) are extraordinarily disproportionate to the violation(s).
- c. On the appeal form, the student organization must state the reason(s) for appeal, the supporting facts, and the recommended solution. This is not a re-hearing of the conduct case. An appeal cannot be filed simply because a student organization is dissatisfied with the decision. Failure to describe the nature of the information in full detail in the appeal letter will result in the denial of an appeal.
- d. The Appellate Officer shall first determine if sufficient grounds for appeal exist and then, if so, may either deny the appeal, thus sustaining the initial decision and sanction(s), or do one of the following:
  1. Reduce the sanction; or
  2. Order a new hearing.
- e. The student organization shall receive a written decision to the appeal. There is no definitive timeline for receiving an appeal response. It depends on many factors including the complexity of the case and the information mentioned in the appeal, as well as the Appellate Officer’s appeal load at that particular time. Decisions of the VP of SDES or designee reflect final agency action.
- f. If the Appellate Officer upholds the original findings, the effective date of any disciplinary sanction(s) imposed will revert back to the date of the Director of the OSRR’s final decision letter.

  - a. When an instructor becomes aware of an alleged violation of student academic behavior standards and before any academic action is taken, the instructor shall inform the student of the violation, citing the information on which the allegation is based. The instructor shall give the student the opportunity to respond in defense. If the instructor continues to believe a violation of academic behavior has occurred, the instructor, in consultation with the unit head, shall duly inform the student in writing of the academic action being taken and the reason for such action. Reports of the initial violation and the final academic action report shall also be sent to the Director of the OSRR or designee. Report forms are available at www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu.
  - b. In response to an alleged violation of the student academic behavior standards, the instructor, along with the unit head, shall take appropriate measures ranging from counseling to an academic action (such as loss of credit in a specific assignment, examination or project; failure of the course) to a recommendation for disciplinary action forwarded to the Director of the OSRR or designee. If a student is found to have multiple infractions, the Director of the OSRR may recommend additional action.
  - c. Should an alleged violation of academic behavior standards arise before the withdrawal deadline in a term, the student shall not be permitted to withdraw from the course in question. Only a written release from the instructor, or the authorized party deciding a student appeal, will permit withdrawal. However, if the student appeals the academic action and desires to withdraw from the course, a withdrawal request must be initiated prior to the withdrawal deadline, but will be held in abeyance until a ruling on the appeal is obtained. If resolved in favor of the student, the withdrawal request will be processed at the time. The individual empowered to rule on the student appeal shall appropriately notify both the Registrar and the Director of the OSRR or designee of the outcome. Should the student withdraw after an alleged incident, the withdrawal will be reversed pending the resolution of the above process.

5. Coordination of Academic and Disciplinary Action

- a. When an instructor initiates academic action as the result of the student's alleged violation of academic behavior standards, the academic action will be processed before any disciplinary action is sought. At the time of the final academic action report, the instructor can recommend, through the unit head and college dean or designee to the Director of the OSRR or designee, that disciplinary action should be pursued by means of the Student Conduct Review Process (UCF-5.009). If a student initiates an academic appeal regarding the grade issued, the Office of Student Conduct will wait until the academic appeal is complete before concluding the Student Conduct Review Process (see Regulation UCF-5.016 for information on student academic appeals).
- b. When information concerning an alleged violation of academic behavior standards is received by the Director of the OSRR or designee from somewhere other than instructional sources (e.g. other students, University police, etc.), the Director or designee shall inform the dean or designee of the college in which the violation allegedly took place. The college dean or designee shall inform the unit head who, in turn, will notify any affected instructor. The instructor, in consultation with the unit head, will then determine if an academic action is appropriate. At the time of the final academic action report, the instructor can recommend through the unit head and college dean or designee to the Director of the OSRR or designee that disciplinary action should be pursued by means of the Student Conduct Review Process.
- c. In the case of multiple or aggravated violations of academic behavior standards, the Director of the OSRR or designee shall initiate disciplinary action based on information contained in University records upon consultation with the college dean or designee.

UCF-5.016

STUDENT ACADEMIC APPEALS

1. Scope

This regulation shall apply to:

- a. Undergraduate and graduate student appeals of grades (typically limited to final grades) resulting from an instructor's:
  1. Alleged deviation from established and announced grading policy;
  2. Alleged errors in application of grading procedures; and
  3. Alleged lowering of grades for non-academic reasons, including discrimination.
- b. The professional judgment exercised by an instructor in assigning a specific grade or in conducting a class is excluded from the provisions of this rule except as noted above.
- c. Actions taken by an instructor pursuant to the Student Academic Behavior provisions (see Regulation UCF-5.015).
- d. Appeals of graduate programs actions or decisions by a faculty member, program, or college, including termination from an academic program, are discussed in the following section.

2. General Policy

The following assumptions are adopted:

- a. Students are entitled to a fair, timely and open resolution of academic appeals.
- b. Faculty members and administrators are entitled to a fair, timely, and open forum in defense of their action.
- c. Students have access to published materials and student government representatives to help them become familiar with and understand procedures for handling academic appeals.
- d. Faculty members and administrators have access to published materials and University staff to help them be aware of and understand procedures to address academic appeals.
- e. Resolution of student academic appeals should be made as informally as possible.
- f. The University as an institution and its faculty are entitled to procedures that ensure the maintenance of academic standards.
- g. The appropriate forum for discussion or alteration of academic matters is the academic unit responsible for these matters.

3. Resolution of Student Appeals at Informal Level

- a. STEP 1: All student academic appeals of allegedly wrongful academic action(s) by an instructor or administrator shall first be brought to the attention of the person whose action is being appealed. (The instructor of the course or administrator whose action is being appealed will be referred to in this regulation as the Responding Party.) This action must be initiated within one semester of the alleged wrongful action or grade. The parties should attempt to resolve the problem in a timely and satisfactory manner. If dissatisfied with the decision of the Responding Party, or if that person is not available, the student must first continue to pursue an informal solution with the unit head, usually the chair or director of the unit.

- b. STEP 2: The unit head or supervisor, in consultation with the Responding Party, should make every effort to communicate with the student and resolve the problem. When classes are in session, this communication shall normally take place within 10 school days of the complaint being brought to the unit head or supervisor. Between semesters and during the summer term, this communication may be extended 10 days into the new semester. The unit head or supervisor will provide the student with a written decision that includes reference to student academic appeals procedures.
1. When the Responding Party is not available to discuss the problem, if at all possible, the resolution should wait until such time as the Responding Party can return to the campus, but not more than six (6) months.
  2. If the unit head or college dean or designee determines that an emergency exists requiring that the problem be solved prior to the availability of the Responding Party (e.g. in a case of probable delayed graduation), the unit head or dean or designee shall make every reasonable effort to inform the Responding Party of the situation. The Responding Party may elect to submit a written statement and/or to designate a replacement to aid in solving the problem.
  3. If the Responding Party cannot be reached or does not designate a replacement, and the complaint must be dealt with promptly, then the unit head or dean or designee shall act on behalf of the Responding Party.

4. Resolution of Student Academic Appeals at the College Level

- a. STEP 3: If not satisfied with the resolution of the complaint proposed by the unit head or supervisor, the student should consult with Student Government Association's Judicial Advisor or designee, who shall furnish advice to the student's rights and responsibilities with respect to this policy.
- b. STEP 4: Within 10 school days of receipt of the unit head's or supervisor's decision, if the student wishes to file a formal appeal, the student must contact the dean's office of the college in which the action occurred and schedule an appointment with the dean or a designee. That individual will informally review the student's concerns, counsel the student on his/her options, and explain the formal Student Academic Appeals process.
- c. STEP 5: If the student is not satisfied with the outcome of the consultation with the administrator, within 10 days of their meeting or conversation, the student may appeal in writing to the Student Academic Appeals Committee. This committee will determine the legitimacy of the awarded grade and if appropriate, suggest a resolution. The student's written appeal shall include the basis of the original complaint, the dates when the instructor, unit head, administrator or supervisor discussed the problem with the student, and the suggested resolution at that time.

5. Composition of the Student Academic Appeals Committee

- a. Each college shall establish a Student Academic Appeals Committee whenever required.
- b. The committee shall be made up of at least three (3) and no more than five (5) tenure-earning or tenured faculty members and an equal number of students.
- c. Student members shall be selected by the dean of the college or designee from a panel of no less than 30 students. This panel shall be appointed by the Vice President of Student Development and Enrollment Services from a list recommended for this purpose by the Student Body President.
- d. Any member may be challenged for cause by either party. The validity of such challenges shall be decided by the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. If a challenge is upheld, the college dean or designee shall appoint a replacement from the college's tenured and tenure-earning faculty or the student panel.

- e. The college dean or designee shall assemble the Student Academic Appeals Committee to conduct a formal review of the student academic appeal.

6. Formal Review of a Student Academic Appeal

- a. In conducting a formal review, the Student Academic Appeals Committee shall adhere to the following guidelines:
  1. The time limits specified in the following review procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.
  2. The committee shall not be officially convened to review the appeal until the Responding Party or substitute/replacement has received a copy of the appeal and has had at least five (5) school days to submit, if desired, a response or additional information. The student will be provided with a copy of any material submitted by the Responding Party at least five (5) school days before the committee meets to review the case.
  3. The committee should make every reasonable effort to meet for review of the case within 20 school days after receipt of the student's written appeal and any information provided by the Responding Party and/or unit head.
  4. The committee will function as an objective, fact-finding body when examining all available and relevant information concerning the student's appeal of academic action by the Responding Party. Such information shall include the student's written appeal, written and/or oral information provided by the Responding Party, statements made by both parties before the committee, and any other information the committee may deem relevant.
  5. The college dean or designee will convene the committee, establish procedural rules for conducting the meeting, serve as its chair, and will vote in the case of a tie. The meeting is not covered by Sunshine laws, and is thus closed to outside parties.
  6. The student and Responding Party shall be invited to meet with the committee. Each shall be allowed adequate time to respond to the appeal and material as submitted, to answer any questions from committee members, and to present additional information needed to clarify the issues involved.
  7. After meeting with both parties, the committee shall vote on the validity of the student's appeal and, if appropriate, develop its recommendations. The committee chair will ensure that the committee's majority opinion is recorded and forwarded to the college dean.
- b. The college dean shall render a decision within 10 school days of the conclusion of the committee hearing. Copies of the committee's recommendations and the dean's decision shall be made available to both parties concerned, to the provost, and all other involved parties and departments.

7. Final Appeal

- a. STEP 6: If dissatisfied with the college dean's decision, the student may, within 10 school days, file a written request for review with the dean of undergraduate studies or the dean of graduate studies (depending upon the classification of the student), stating the basis for review and the resolution sought by the student.
- b. Acting as the University president's representative, the dean of undergraduate studies or the dean of graduate studies shall make a final decision on the matter within 10 school days of receipt of the student's request for review. Copies of the dean's written decision shall be sent to the student, the college dean, the chair, the Director of the OSRR, the Responding Party, and other involved parties.

8. Z Designation for Academic Dishonesty

- a. As a result of academic dishonesty in an undergraduate course, an appropriate grade will be assigned to a student that is preceded by the letter Z.
- b. If a faculty member finds that a student has violated the University academic behavior standards in a course, the student will be informed by the faculty member. The faculty member must also report the violation (at least for information only) to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities using the online incident reporting form http://www.osc.sdes.ucf.edu/?id=incident\_report\_1.
- c. The faculty member's syllabus shall state the impact that violating academic behavior standards has on the grade for the course (may provide a zero for the assignment, resulting in the lowering of the final grade (e.g. ZA, ZB, etc...), or award an F in the course (ZF)).
- d. The student shall remain enrolled in the course. If the student has withdrawn from the class to avoid the disciplinary action, s/he will be added back to the roster and assigned the appropriate grade, as described in Regulation UCF-5.015.
- e. When submitting final grades, the faculty member will inform the Registrar's Office of the Z designation via the change of grade of form. The Registrar's Office will record the submitted grade, affix a Z in front, and flag the audit such that the grade cannot be changed until the student completes the required Academic Integrity Seminar (see next section).
- f. Student Recourse for Removal of Z Designation (first violation)
  1. Academic Appeal Process: The student may go through the academic appeal process, and if the academic appeal is successful, the student will receive the grade earned and have the Z removed, or;
  2. If the student has not previously used both grade forgiveness opportunities permitted in a student's academic lifetime, s/he may repeat the course for forgiveness the next semester it is offered. If the class is satisfactorily completed, the Z designation will be removed from the transcript as long as the student also completes the Academic Integrity Seminar, or;
  3. If the student is satisfied with the grade assigned, but wants the Z designation removed, the student must satisfactorily complete a mandatory Academic Integrity Seminar (non-credit) within one year after the violation, at which time the Z designation will be removed from the transcript.
- g. A grade change, whether removal of the Z and/or designation of forgiveness, must occur within one academic year following the initial enrollment. Only the faculty member initially assigning the grade, or if s/he is unavailable, the department chair, is able to change the grade.
- h. Z Designation (second violation)
  1. Second violation Z designations are not removable; all Z designations awarded stay on the transcript (the Z is explained on the reverse side of the transcript).
  2. No grade change will occur and the Z designation will be calculated into the GPA in the same way as the grade awarded.
- i. Please note that the Z designation is separate from the Student Conduct Review Process, which may include additional sanctions.

APPEALS OF GRADUATE PROGRAM ACTIONS OR DECISIONS

1. Review of Academic Performance

- a. The primary responsibility for monitoring a student's progress to degree rests with the degree program, although the College of Graduate Studies may also monitor a student's progress and take appropriate actions if performance standards as specified by the program and University are not maintained. Satisfactory progress to degree requires an ongoing evaluation of a student's performance in a program as indicated by satisfactory grades within courses, successful performance on program competency exams, progress in thesis and dissertation research, the maintenance of the standards of academic and professional integrity expected in a particular discipline or program, and any other measures of progress as customarily used in the program. Academic probation or even dismissal of the student from the program may occur when the degree program decides in its judgment that the individual is not making satisfactory progress to degree.
- b. A degree program may also recommend dismissal if the student fails to maintain the standards of academic and professional integrity, as well as competence necessary for the welfare of patients, clients or others encountered in internships, externships or other classes required by the degree program.
- c. However, it is incumbent on the degree program to give the student an opportunity to discuss the pending action with the program director prior to making a recommendation of dismissal. The Dean and Vice Provost of the College of Graduate Studies has final authority over dismissal recommendations and will execute them accordingly. Once dismissed, a student may apply to UCF as a student in another degree program, or as a non-degree student who is prohibited from taking courses in the program from which he/she was dismissed. However, a student can only be reinstated to his/her previous degree program by either submitting a new application to the program with a new admissions decision, or through a formal grievance process. (See Grievance Procedures in following section.)

2. Grievance Procedures

Graduate students disputing the evaluation of their progress to degree, as described above, have several routes of appeal depending on the nature of the grievance.

- a. In the appeal of a grade in a specific course (excluding thesis or dissertation courses) students are referred to Regulation UCF-5.016 for the appeals procedures.
- b. For issues resulting from a failure to maintain academic behavior standards such as cheating, plagiarism, etc., students are referred to Regulation UCF-5.016 (and, as appropriate, student conduct review procedures).
- c. Misconduct associated with research will follow procedures determined by the Office of Research and Commercialization.
- d. All other grievances follow the Procedure for Other Grievances of Graduate Students as outlined on the next page.

3. Procedure for Other Grievances of Graduate Students

This procedure is intended for graduate students having complaints regarding specific actions or decisions by a faculty member, program or college, including termination from an academic program for reasons that are not covered in Section 2. The graduate student should first discuss the matter within the academic unit of the grievance and attempt to resolve the grievance informally. If the informal resolution fails, the formal procedure is as follows:

- a. The graduate student requesting consideration of a grievance, must state the nature of the grievance in writing to the graduate program director, within six (6) months of the date of the occurrence of the aggrieved action. The statement should include a brief narrative of the grievance, the parties involved, and a statement of the remedy being requested.
- b. Dependent on the nature of the grievance, the graduate program director will in 10 business days following receipt of the grievance either make a recommendation about the grievance to the unit head or refer the grievance to the unit/program graduate committee to examine the issue at their next scheduled meeting. The unit/program graduate committee may invite the aggrieved student and others having information about the case to attend the meeting and present information and arguments about the grievance. If so invited, the graduate student can have a personal advisor at the meeting, but the advisor can only confer with the student and not participate in the committee meeting. The unit/program graduate committee will make a recommendation about the grievance to the graduate program director.
- c. The graduate program director will consider the input of the unit/program graduate committee and make a recommendation to the unit head about the grievance. The unit head will then make a final decision about the grievance at the program/unit level and inform the student of the decision within 10 business days after receiving the recommendation from the graduate program director.
- d. Should the graduate student disagree with the decision of the unit head, the student has 10 business days to file a written appeal of the decision with the academic college graduate coordinator (or the Associate Dean of the College of Graduate Studies in the case of interdisciplinary programs with no academic college assigned to oversight of the program). It is incumbent on the student to explain in the appeal why the unit/program decision is in error and should be re-examined. Dependent on the grievance, the academic college graduate coordinator will in 10 business days following receipt of the appeal, either make a recommendation to the college dean about the grievance, or refer the grievance to the college graduate committee to examine the issue at their next scheduled meeting. The college graduate committee may invite the aggrieved student and others having information about the case to attend the meeting and present information about the grievance. If so invited, the graduate student can have a personal advisor at the committee meeting, but the advisor can only confer with the student and not participate in the committee meeting. The college graduate committee will make a recommendation about the grievance to the college graduate coordinator.
- e. The academic college graduate coordinator after considering the input of the college graduate committee will make a recommendation to the college dean about the grievance. The college dean will then make the final decision about the grievance at the academic college level, and inform the student of the decision within 10 business days after receiving the recommendation from the college graduate coordinator.
- f. Should the graduate student disagree with the decision of the academic college dean, the student has 10 business days following receipt of the college decision to file a written appeal of the decision at the University-level with the Vice Provost and Dean of the College of Graduate Studies. It is incumbent on the student to explain in the appeal why the academic college decision is in error and should be reexamined. Dependent on the appeal, the Vice Provost and Dean will within 10 business days following receipt of the appeal either make a decision about the grievance or refer the appeal to the Appeals Subcommittee of the Graduate Council to examine the issue at a scheduled meeting. The Appeals Subcommittee may invite the aggrieved student as well as others having information about the grievance to attend and present information about the grievance. If so invited, the graduate student can have a personal advisor at the meeting, but the advisor can only confer with the student and not participate in the committee meeting. The Appeals Subcommittee will submit a recommendation to the Vice Provost and Dean concerning the grievance.
- g. The Vice Provost and Dean of the College of Graduate Studies will consider the input of the Appeals Subcommittee of the Graduate Council and make a final decision about the grievance for the University. There is no appeal beyond the level of Vice Provost and Dean as this person is vested with the final authority by the President of the University.

5. Office of Student Involvement

1. Student Activities and Organizations

The University supports a variety of student organizations as a belief in their co-curricular value, their role in the general education of students, and their being an asset to the University community. Opportunities for student involvement in student organizations include student government, academic, honorary, athletics, religious, special interests, cultural, international and service groups. Student organizations play an important role in the total University life and must, therefore, exercise judgment and responsibility in the planning and implementation of their activities. This judgment and responsibility extends to individual members and officers of organizations. Organizations and individuals must also observe certain regulations for rational and effective operation in the University community.

a. Student Organizations

1. Benefits of involvement: UCF recognizes the importance of active and effective student organizations. Research clearly shows that those students who choose to become involved in some form of organized activity do better academically, persist through graduation, and gain valuable career-related and life skills, and experience greater personal development when compared to those students who choose not to get involved. These benefits are even more enhanced for those students who take on leadership roles within student organizations.
2. The ability to organize: The University encourages students to organize themselves and to pursue personal and/or professional interests. Further, the University supports the choice to form and affiliate with an organization and strives to remove administrative barriers that would hinder such involvement.
3. University oversight: The University has the responsibility to exercise appropriate oversight over student organizations and their related activities. This includes the official registration of all student organizations through the Office of Student Involvement as well as oversight for the appropriate time, place and manner of all activities, events, etc. Policies and procedures related to the conduct of student organizations are presented below.

b. Registration of Student Organizations

Any student association, group, or organization other than the Student Government Association whose objectives are consistent with the organizational goals and mission of the University is eligible for active registration. Registration is permitted and completed upon the recommendation of the Student Government Association, the review and concurrence of the Office of Student Involvement, and the approval of the Associate Vice President for Campus Life or designee. The Office of Student Involvement will have copies of The Golden Rule available for student organizations when they submit their registration and officer update reports.

1. Registration Process: To be considered for registration, a student organization must submit in writing to the Office of Student Involvement a list of UCF student members and their UCF PID numbers, a list of all officers and their UCF PID numbers, the signature of all officers and the faculty/staff advisor(s), and the organization's constitution. Proposed student organizations must have a minimum of 12 UCF student members, except at regional campuses (which need a minimum of eight), and on a case-by-case basis, when affiliated with a national governing body (which needs a minimum of four). Proposed student organizations, whose mission/purpose appears to be a duplication of an existing organization, may not be recognized. No student organization may be set up so that any individual benefits monetarily from its existence. In seeking, securing, and maintaining the privilege to be registered, each student organization must agree in writing to abide by all University policies, procedures, and regulations and to hold harmless the University for any actions or activities of the organization.

2. Privileges of Registration: Student organizations registered by the University may be granted the following privileges:
  - i. The privilege to use University facilities depending on availability, program and guidelines.
  - ii. The privilege to request Student Government Association activity and service fees provided said organization adheres to the Student Body Constitution, the Student Body Statutes, and all Student Government financial regulations.
  - iii. The privilege to establish dues and sponsor money-raising projects.
  - iv. The privilege to use the University's name as part of the organization's name (Office of Student Conduct 9, 15).
  - v. The privilege to invite guest speakers to campus.
  - vi. The privilege to grant awards and honors to organization members.
  - vii. The privilege of access to campus for recruiting, fundraising, and publicity.
  - viii. The privilege of a free organizational e-mail address and Web site.
  - ix. The privilege of access to resources provided by University departments and offices.
  - x. The privilege of free or low-cost banking.
  - xi. The privilege of an on-campus mailbox.
  - xii. The privilege to apply for cubicle space on campus.
  - xiii. The privilege to program with SGA agencies.
  - xiv. The privilege to participate, as a group, in University-sponsored events.
3. Registration of student organizations by the University shall not imply support for any student organization's purpose, philosophy or activities. The University will not assume any legal liability for any student organization's activities per Florida Administrative Code.

c. Update Reports and Inactive Organizations

At the beginning of each semester, and following organization elections, all registered student organizations must file an updated report with the Office of Student Involvement. The report must include a current listing of the organization's membership and officers, the signature of at least two (2) current officers and the faculty/staff advisor(s), and the organization's contact information. Organizations shall annually attend a mandatory orientation. Organizations that do not turn in an update form or do not meet any of the other informational requirements listed above will be considered inactive. Complete membership and officer lists and financial statements should be made available to the Office of Student Involvement upon request. Any change in the information indicated above during the academic year should be reported to the Office of Student Involvement. Changes made to an organization's existing constitution must be submitted and approved by the Office of Student Involvement. Should an inactive organization fail to reactivate within one calendar year, that organization shall be considered dissolved. Dissolved organizations may only be reformed by following the aforementioned organization registration process.

d. Funds and Expenditures

Registered organizations may receive operating and programming funds from Student Government Association through an application process. All approved Student Government Association funding will be disbursed and expended through the Student Government Association accountant. Student organizations receiving funds must comply with Student Government and Office of Finance and Accounting Guidelines. Organizations that do not receive funding from Student Government Association may deposit or expend funds through an off-campus account or through an account established with the Office of Finance and Accounting.

e. Membership

Membership in any student organization is limited to any student who is currently paying activity and service fees and is enrolled at UCF. Organizational membership requirements must also be satisfied. UCF employees may be non-voting members if the organization's national constitution and by-laws allow for it. In order to comply with the University's commitment to non-discrimination, all students who enroll at the University will be assured equal access to educational programs and related opportunities without regard to race, sex, age, religion, disability, national origin, marital or parental status, veteran's status, or sexual orientation.

f. Student Eligibility for Leadership Positions

1. The University has established the following minimum requirements for service in student leadership positions. Such positions may be elected or appointed and shall include without limitation, only as the University deems appropriate in its sole discretion, student government officials, officers of active registered student organizations, members of University department-sponsored groups, and members of University committees. These minimum requirements may be reviewed for waiver only under extraordinary circumstances as deemed appropriate by the University in its sole discretion.
  - i. During fall and spring semesters, a student leader must be continually enrolled as an activity and service fee-paying half-time student (currently defined as at least six credit hours as an undergraduate degree-seeking student or a post-baccalaureate student, or at least five credit hours in a graduate degree-seeking program or at least three credit hours if registered for dissertation or thesis hours). The student is not required to be enrolled during summer term; however, the student must be continuously enrolled during preceding spring semester and following fall semester. Exceptions shall be made, upon appeal, for students in their last semester prior to graduation.
  - ii. A student leader must have a minimum institutional grade point average for their current academic career (i.e., undergraduate or graduate). This is a grade point average of 2.5 for undergraduate students and 3.0 for post-baccalaureate or graduate students, for all hours earned:
    - a. Toward UCF classes (i.e., UCF cumulative GPA), or
    - b. At a previous educational institution, if the student is in their first semester (within their current academic career) at UCF.
  - iii. A student leader must be in good academic and disciplinary standing, defined as not being on academic or disciplinary probation.
  - iv. A student leader must be free of financial or disciplinary holds on University records.

2. Upon notification of ineligibility, students have two weeks to gain eligibility before removal from leadership position. Students who do not meet these minimum requirements may submit a written appeal to the Eligibility Appeals Board through the Office of Student Involvement within two weeks from the first day of being alerted of their eligibility delinquency by the Office of Student Involvement. The appeal should address the causes for ineligibility and reasons for believing that the problems have been resolved. The Eligibility Appeals Board is made up of students (three) appointed by the Student Body President and faculty (one) and staff (two) appointed by the Director of the OSSR. The board elects their chairperson, who votes only in case of a tie. The Eligibility Appeals Board shall resolve the issue within four weeks time. The Eligibility Appeals Board is the deciding body that, upon hearing the appeal may waive the eligibility requirements for that semester. Students may only be granted one appeal per criteria every two consecutive semesters (excluding summer). The Eligibility Appeals Board may review the academic record of students in those positions of leadership or responsibility. The decisions of the Eligibility Appeals Board are final. The Student Government Association has established eligibility requirements for selected positions within student government. These requirements and governing procedures are presented in their election and eligibility statutes, which are made available to any student upon request, as well as to all candidates filing for office.

g. Faculty or Staff Advisor

All organizations shall have a UCF faculty or staff advisor in order to be considered for active registration. Additionally, a faculty or staff advisor is required in order to receive Student Government Association funding.

2. Event Management

a. Event Management for Registered Events

1. General Policy
  - i. This regulation applies to the holding of potentially hazardous events on University controlled property. Excepted from this regulation are official events which are scheduled annually in University publications (classes, orientation, registration, etc.).
  - ii. The provisions of this regulation are in addition to the provisions of other University regulations and University policies related to campus events.

- iii. A potentially hazardous event is defined as any activity that could reasonably be expected to create a risk of harm to persons or of defacement or damage to public or private property. Examples of potentially hazardous events include, but are not limited to:
  - a. Bonfires.
  - b. Use of firearms, explosives or munitions.
  - c. Lighting of fireworks.
  - d. Events involving helicopters or other aircraft.
  - e. Motor vehicle races.
  - f. Gatherings in excess of 200 persons, including unregistered campus athletic events.
  - g. Marches and parades.
  - h. Any event involving the distribution of alcohol.
  - i. Any outdoor event requiring electricity.

2. Procedure

i. Scheduling

- a. The Student Union Event Services office coordinates the event planning process for events for registered student organizations. Contracts, vending agreements, purchasing of items, and any other arrangements may be offered only after prior consultation with the Office of Student Involvement and/or the Activity and Service Fee Business Office. To schedule an event, a representative of a student organization must first schedule an event location and then complete a SAFE form which can be obtained through the Office of Student Involvement. The event will not be confirmed until the submission of the completed form to the Student Union Event Services office. All required signatures from special support services such as Police, Physical Plant, and Insurance must be completed to obtain approval for the event(s) to occur.
- b. If the organization desiring to schedule an event does not complete a SAFE form 15 calendar days prior to the date of the scheduled event, the organization may be denied use of University facilities and may not be able to conduct the event. The form shall be signed by an officer of the student organization and the faculty/staff advisor.
